As soon as you enter the Hazelwood you instantly feel at home. The multitude of feature bay windows throughout make this a very bright airy home whilst being practical as well as stylish.

This home offers generous proportioned rooms and the interior design combines warm woods and fabrics in tones of cappuccino and blush. This home is a perfect solution for those seeking a stylish, low maintenance home.

Lounge & Dining Room

A spacious L shaped living and dining space at the heart of the home with double aspect bay windows, and feature fire place. The dining area has great access directly to the kitchen - ideal for when entertaining friends and family.

Kitchen

Cleverly designed with endless storage cupboards, plenty of food prep areas, and integrated appliances.

Bedrooms

The bedrooms feel like a boutique hotel with textured wallpaper, and curtains in berry tones that give a real sense of warmth. The master bedroom has plenty of storage with built in bedroom furniture and a spacious ensuite bathroom.

Outside

Block Pave private parking outside the home with garden area, and shed base.

Location

There is a shop on site for your daily paper and provisions and a regular bus service adjacent to the park, allowing you the independence to explore the beauty of the Purbecks.

Situated 1 mile from the historic Saxon walled town of Wareham, this newly developed park truly provides a luxury lifestyle in one of the most beautiful parts of Dorset. Offering all the local amenities including a variety of cafes, restaurants, boutique shops and being by the river there is always lots happening at the towns Quay.

Just 3 miles down the road discover Corfe Castle or the well renowned Bovington Tank museum. A short drive takes you to Swanage, Durdle Door and Lulworth Cove on the famous Jurassic coastline.

There is also a train station with links to London.
